

Provider databases:

RAD Remedy

This is a resource that connects trans, gender non-conforming, intersex, and queer people to accurate, safe, respectful, and comprehensive care.

Trans Resources:

MyTransHealth

This is a guided search to make finding access to quality healthcare easier for trans people.

TransGender Care

This is a national website with healthcare information for trans people.

TransAction Florida

This is part of Equality Florida. Their goals are to educate Florida's major employers on effective trans inclusion protocol, to advocate for the trans community in a broader and more structured way, and to be an integral part of all public policy that involved trans rights. This website also has the Transgender Resource Guide, which is a directory of quality trans-friendly service providers from across the state.

Southern Comfort Conference

This is an annual conference for people who are a part of the trans community and their friends and families. It includes seminars, and social activities for all age groups and for people in many stages of transition.

TranQuility

This is a local group that offers education, support and care for all trans people, their friends, families and allies. Meetings are on the fourth Monday of every month from 7-9 p.m. at HealthStreet. 2401 SW Archer Road, Gainesville. alachuatranquility@gmail.com

UF Health Youth Gender Program

This is a local program through the UF Health system that offers both resources for gender identity development and gender nonconformity and social and medical transition support for transgender and gender nonconforming youth and their families.

Trans Student Educational Resources

This website has a number of resources from educational websites to where to find safe bathrooms.

FTMI

Last Edited 11-13-17

FTMI is the longest-running and largest organization for female-to-male individuals. It has resources, ways to communicate with other F-T-M people, and lists of local support groups.

Policy/Social Justice:

Equality Florida

This is a civil rights organization dedicated to securing full equality for Florida's LGBTQ+ community. They focus on education, grassroots organizing, coalition building, and lobbying in Florida.

Human Rights Campaign

This is a national organization that advocates for LGBTQ+ equality and educates the public about LGBTQ+ issues. They have resources for a number of issues that affect the LGBTQ+ community.

Transgender Law Center

Transgender Law Center works to change law, policy, and attitudes so that all people can live safely, authentically, and free from discrimination regardless of their gender identity or expression.

Campus Pride

This is a national nonprofit organization for student leaders and campus groups working to create a safer college environment for LGBT students. The organization's objective is to develop necessary resources, programs and services to support LGBTQ+ and ally students on college campuses across the United States.

GLAAD

This is a national organization that focuses on media-related initiatives to tackle issues in order to shape the narrative and provoke dialogue that leads to cultural change regarding LGBTQ+ issues.

GLSEN

The Gay, Lesbian and Straight Education network (GLSEN) works to improve school climate and champion LGBTQ+ issues in K-12 education. They work on a number of initiatives including conducting research, creating developmentally appropriate resources for educators, partnering with decision makers and organizations, and empowering students.

Questioning:

Am I Gay? A Guide for People Who Question Their Sexual Orientation

This is a resource to help in better understanding your own sexual orientation. It is designed by a psychologist who teaches a college course about sexual orientation and who counsels clients who want to clarify their sexual orientation.

Bisexuality:

Bisexual Resource Center

This is a resource for bisexuality information and advocacy. The organization advocates for bisexual visibility and raises awareness about bisexuality throughout the LGBTQ+ and straight communities.

6 Truths of Bisexuality

This is an article with information about bisexuality.

8 Questions to Stop Asking Bisexual People

This is an informational article about some of the concerns and issues that bisexual people may encounter. It is also a good resource for family and friends of bisexual people.

Asexuality:

Asexuality: The 'X' in a Sexual World

This is a multi-part article series with information about asexuality.

\(A\)sexual

This is a documentary about asexuality.

Mental Health Practice Standards and Guidelines:

World Professional Association for Transgender Health

This is an interdisciplinary professional and educational organization devoted to trans health. WPATH also publishes the Standards of Care and Ethical Guidelines, which articulate a professional consensus about the psychiatric, psychological, medical, and surgical management of gender identity disorders, and help professionals understand the parameters within which they may offer assistance to those with these conditions.

Guidelines for Psychological Practice with Transgender and Gender Nonconforming People

This is a guide from the American Psychological Association that is designed to assist psychologists in the provision of culturally competent, developmentally appropriate, and trans-affirmative psychological practice with trans and gender nonconforming people.

Guidelines for Psychological Practice With Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Clients

This is a guide from the American Psychological Association that provides psychologists with a frame of reference for the treatment of lesbian, gay, and bisexual clients, and basic information and further references in the areas of assessment, intervention, identity, relationships, diversity, education, training, and research.

Association for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Issues in Counseling \(ALGBTIC\)

This is a guide from the American Counseling Association that is designed to assist counselors who are working with trans clients. These competencies are based on a wellness, resilience, and strength-based approach for working with trans clients.

American Psychiatric Association Statement

This is a statement from the American Psychiatric Association about access to care for transgender people.

American Medical Association Policies

This is the American Medical Association's Policies on LGBT issues.

Crisis Support:

Switchboard

Switchboard offers free and confidential telephone counseling, crisis intervention, suicide prevention, and information and referral services to callers who need social services and/or in-person counseling. Switchboard also operates an LGBTQ+ suicide awareness and helpline.

The Trevor Project

This is a national organization that provides crisis intervention and suicide prevention services to LGBTQ+ people ages 13-24.

Substance Abuse Treatment:

Hazelden Betty Ford Foundation

This is a substance abuse treatment center that is LGBTQ+-friendly.

UF Campus:

Pride Student Union

Pride Student Union (PSU) or "Pride," is an organization for lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, queer, questioning, intersexed, allied, asexual, and pansexual (LGBTQQIAAP) students at the University of Florida. Their mission is to support and educate members of the University of Florida, allies and surrounding communities with regards to the community's issues and concerns.

UF Office of LGBT Affairs

LGBT Affairs works to educate, advocate, and support LGBTQIA people and issues, at UF and in the Gainesville community. They offer student-centered programming, outreach, community building and advocacy. Their website also provides links to a number of resources.

ULifeline Self Evaluator

This was developed for by Duke University School of Medicine and screens for thirteen of the most common mental health conditions that college students face. This screening does not provide a diagnosis, but identifies problems that could be impacting thoughts, feelings and behaviors. The screening process also provides information on these conditions and how to reach out for help.

Gainesville:

Pride Community Center

This is charitable organization serving Alachua, and surrounding counties. They offer a number of events and programs. They have an online Calendar of events for all of North Central Florida's LGBTQ+ organizations, Public Service Announcements, information on the Board of Directors for the Community Center, and links to other resources.

PFLAG

Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays of Gainesville (PFLAG Gainesville) is a chapter of PFLAG, the nation's foremost family-based organization committed to the civil rights of LGBTQ+ people. PFLAG Gainesville's mission is to create a better future for LGBTQ+ youth and adults through a partnership of parents, allies, and LGBTQ+ people.

Wild Iris Bookstore

This is Florida's only feminist bookstore. They carry books on women's studies, minority and civil rights studies, queer and trans resources, alternative children's books, alternative spiritualities and healing modalities and more. They also host a monthly event called Free Store, which is a collection of clothing, shoes, make-up, jewelry and toiletries and it's set up with the needs of queer and trans people, people between housing, and those in special need in addition to hosting and sponsoring a number of community events.

How to support your LGBTQ+ friend:

What to Do If Your Friend Comes Out to You

This is a webcast series with video clips that are designed to help friends of LGBTQ people support their friend who is coming out.

Gender Equality Resource Center

This website has a list of terminology used in the LGBTQ community. Although the list is updated, use other resources to make sure you're up-to-date on the latest terminology.

Partners and Families of LGBTQ+ People:

Heartland Trans Wellness Group- Significant Others, Friends, and Families Resource Page

This website has a list of resources for significant others, family, friends, and allies of trans people.

Gender Spectrum

This organization seeks to create gender sensitive and inclusive environments for all children and teens. The parenting and family page has resources for supporting a loved one who is trans.

Cross Dreamers

This website has a list of resources for partners of trans people.

Love, Always

This is a book that is a collection of writings by partners of trans people exploring the impact of gender transitioning on their relationships and families.

Colage

This is an organization for children of LGBTQ+ people. Their mission is to unite people with lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and/or queer parents into a network of peers and support them as they nurture and empower each other to be skilled, self-confident, and just leaders in our collective communities.

Magazines and Pop Culture:

Towerload

This web-magazine began in 2003 and is an online news source offering a broad range of information on politics, pop culture, gay culture, media, entertainment, photography, fashion, technology, men, music, and travel.

Curve

This is a web and print-based magazine for sexual minority men.

After Ellen

This is a pop culture website for sexual minority women.

Out

This is a web and print-based magazine for sexual minority men and women.

Huffington Post Queer Voices

This is a news website on LGBTQ+ current events.

The Advocate

This is a web and print-based magazine for LGBTQ+ people.

Queerty

This is an online new magazine on LGBTQ+ issues and pop culture. It also hosts the websites Dragaholic, LGBTQ Nation, Gay Cities and Q.Digital.

Pink News

This is British news-magazine website that has LGBTQ+ news from England and around the world.

OutSports

This is a website about the intersection between athletics and LGBTQ+ issues.

FTM magazine

This is a web-magazine for people who for the FTM and Trans-masculine community.

It's Pronounced Metrosexual

This is a comedy show and online resource designed to address oppression.

Kat Blaque

She is a trans vlogger who contributes to Everyday Feminism, The Huffington Post and PRIDE.com. She discusses issues of racism, transphobia, misogyny and sexism.